Sending via service providers:

As provided by Article 27 of RCMV 81, in addition to delivering the BVD (remote voting ballot) directly to the Company, shareholders may send instructions for filling out the BVD to service providers for collecting and transmitting instructions for filling out the BVD, subject to the rules determined by them, as long as the instructions are received by April 24, 2025, inclusive, or another specific date set by the respective service providers.

- Shareholders with equity in the book: may exercise remote voting through the bookkeeper, in accordance with the instructions and procedures available on their website (<https://assembleiadigital.certificadodigital.com/itausecuritiesservices/artigo/home/assembleiadigital>).
- Shareholders who wish to submit the BVD to the central depository: may exercise remote voting directly via the B3 Central Depository through the electronic system provided by B3, in the Investor Department (available at www.investidorb3.com.br, in the "Service" section, under "Open Meetings").
- Shareholders with equity in a custodian/broker: Must check the voting procedures with the institution that is the custodian of the share.

Shareholders with shares held in custody at more than one institution: It is enough to send the voting instructions to only one institution. Votes will always be considered according to the total number of shares the shareholder in question holds.

Divergent voting instructions concerning one sole resolution issued by one single shareholder, considering their CPF or CNPJ number, will be disregarded.

At the end of the remote voting period, shareholders may not change their voting instructions already sent, except at the meeting itself, if attending, upon explicit request for disregard of the voting instructions provided via BVD on the respective topics.

According to RCVM 81, remote voting instructions will normally be considered in the event of a possible postponement of the meeting or if it is necessary to carry out the voting on a second call, provided that any postponement or voting on a second call must not exceed thirty (30) days after the date originally scheduled for voting on first call.

Mailing and electronic address for sending the remote voting ballot if shareholders wish to deliver the document directly to the company/Guidelines on the electronic system for participating in meetings if such form of participation is accepted.

If the shareholder chooses to send the BVD directly to the Company, they must submit the BVD directly through the Digital Platform, via the link <https://assembleia.ten.com.br/384932229>, by April 24, 2025, observing the procedures listed above.

The Company clarifies that the AGM will be held exclusively on-site.
